

I am opposed to allowing businesses with an "established business relationship" to be able to bypass Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. I understand that the Consumers Banking Association has chosen to challenge this law through proceedings with the FCC. I, along with millions of other Americans, do not want to receive unsolicited business telephone calls.